Article I. Name

The name of this organization shall be "The Royal Scottish Country Dance Society, San Diego Branch Inc.," hereinafter called "the Branch."

Article II. Association with the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society

1. The Branch is an autonomous body consisting of:
 - (a) members of the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society hereinafter called "the Society";
 - (b) associated members of the Branch.

Article III. Objectives

1. The objectives of the Branch shall be to advance the education of the Public in the area of San Diego and its neighborhood in traditional Scottish Country Dancing and in furtherance thereof:
 - (a) To preserve and further the practice of traditional Scottish Country Dancing;
 - (b) To provide or assist in providing instruction in the dancing of Scottish Country Dances;
 - (c) To promote the enjoyment and appreciation of Scottish Country Dancing and Music by any suitable means;
 - (d) Generally to do such other things as are or may be considered by the Branch to further the foregoing objectives of the Society in the San Diego and Southern California areas.

Article IV. Membership and Subscriptions

1. Membership of the Branch shall be open to all persons interested in the objectives of the Branch. Persons over the age of 16 may choose to become a member of the Society. Any member of the Branch who has attained the age of 18 must be a member of the Society.
2. Only such members as have attained the age of 18 shall have the power to vote.
3. Persons whose primary membership is in another Branch may join this Branch as an associate member.

4. Persons under the age of 18 may become associate members of the Branch.
5. Privileges accorded associate members shall be regulated from time to time by the Branch Committee.
6. The rates of subscription for Members shall be such as may be determined from time to time by the Branch in General Meeting.
7. The membership year shall be from June 1st to May 31st.

Article V. Suspension or Termination of Member

1. The Branch Committee may suspend temporarily or terminate the membership of any person whose conduct is in their opinion prejudicial to the interests of the Branch. Suspension or termination shall not alter the rights or status of the person concerned as a member of the Society.
2. Before suspending or terminating any person's membership, the Branch Committee shall notify in writing the person concerned stating the reasons for the proposed suspension or termination and giving that person the opportunity of replying to, and of appearing before the Branch Committee, if the member so wishes, to seek revocation of the suspension or termination.
3. The person whose membership has been suspended or terminated shall have the right of appeal at a Branch General Meeting when a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present and entitled to vote shall be necessary to confirm the suspension or termination.
4. Where suspension or termination has occurred or, where appropriate, has been confirmed as in 3 above, the matter shall be notified to the Society.

Article VI. Officers

1. The elected officers of the Branch shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting and shall include:
 - (a) Chairman
 - (b) Vice-Chairman
 - (c) Honorary Secretary
 - (d) Honorary Treasurer
 - (e) Dance Director
 - (f) Program Director
 - (g) Publicity Director
 - (h) Two Members-at-large.
2. Nominations and Elections
 - (a) A nominating committee of three (3) branch members, not currently serving on the Branch Committee, shall be appointed by the Branch Committee prior to March 1st. The nominating committee shall nominate at least one (1) member for each office and report to the Branch Committee no later than April 1st. The list of nominees shall be presented to the general membership with notice of the Annual General Meeting. All nominees must give their consent for their name to be presented on the list.
 - (b) No more than one person from a family shall be eligible for election on the same Branch Committee.
 - (c) Other candidates may be proposed by petition signed by the nominee and two (2) other members and filed with the Honorary Secretary no later than April 15th. Absentee ballots may be requested from the Honorary Secretary after April 15th, and must be returned to the Honorary Secretary by the call to order of the Annual General Meeting. No nominations will be received from the floor at the Annual General Meeting unless there is an office with no nominations. If, in this case, the nominee is not present at the Annual General Meeting, his/her acceptance, in writing, must be submitted before his/her nomination is accepted.
 - (d) The nomination and election of the officers shall be in the order listed in Article VI, Section 1. The election of Branch Officers and Committee members at the Annual General Meeting shall be by ballot unless there is only one nominee for a given office, in which case the nominee(s) shall be declared elected by the Chairman.

- (e) Ballots shall be counted by three persons who are not candidates for office, appointed by the chairman, with the approval of the Branch Committee.
 - (f) Elections shall be decided by a majority of votes cast by eligible voting members. In the event that no candidate receives a majority, the candidate with the lowest vote count will be dropped, and a new vote taken, excluding the absentee ballots.
3. Term of Office.
- (a) All elections to office shall be in effect from June 1st to May 31st.
 - (b) The Chairman's term of office shall be no more than two (2) consecutive terms.

Article VII Duties of the Elected Officers

1. Chairman – The Chairman is the executive officer of the branch. He/She shall preside at Branch Meetings and at meetings of the Branch Committee.
2. Vice-Chairman – The Vice-Chairman shall assume the duties of the Chairman in his/her absence and shall be available to give such assistance as the Chairman may require.
3. Honorary Secretary – It shall be the duty of the Honorary Secretary to see that regular meetings are held, to conduct the correspondence of the Branch and to keep proper minutes of such meetings. Additionally the Honorary Secretary shall:
- (a) prepare an annual report of the activities of the Branch during the preceding year;
 - (b) keep a register of Members of the Branch;
 - (c) register with the Society as the current Honorary Secretary of the Branch immediately upon taking office.

The Honorary Secretary may delegate any of these duties to other branch members.

4. Honorary Treasurer – It shall be the duty of the Honorary Treasurer to receive, bank, and account for all monies collected by whatever agency from members of the Branch or from other sources. Additionally the Honorary Treasurer shall:
- (a) cause proper account books to be kept and ensure that the annual accounts of the Branch are properly examined or audited as required by law;
 - (b) make the annual Branch accounts available for inspection at reasonable times and present the accounts for adoption by the Branch at the Annual General Meeting;
 - (c) insure the bank account operates on two out of four signatures: those of the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, the Honorary Treasurer, and a fourth person designated by the Branch Committee.

The Honorary Treasurer may delegate any of these duties to other branch members.

5. Dance Director – It shall be the duty of the Dance Director to:
- (a) plan, organize, and direct the teaching activities in accordance with the aims, procedures, and directives of the Society;
 - (b) be the authority on matters pertaining to dance technique, and decide the degree of progress on individuals and their placement in the various groups;
 - (c) be responsible for all dance programs sponsored by the Branch or in which Branch members participate;
 - (d) hold meetings of the Branch teachers and report to the Branch Committee.

The Dance Director shall have the Teacher's Certificate issued by the Society.

6. Program Director – It shall be the duty of the Program Director to:
- (a) coordinate social activities, arranging for necessary facilities, decorations, refreshments and clean-up as directed by the Branch Committee;
 - (b) inform and cooperate with the Publicity Director so that the membership may be apprised of all activities.
7. Publicity Director – It shall be the duty of the Publicity Director to:
- (a) coordinate the history of the Branch;
 - (b) promote and advertise the activities of the Branch;
 - (c) advertise workshops and classes to the general public on all available mass media.

8. Members-at-Large – Two Members-at-Large shall assist the Branch Committee in the performance of its functions. They are expected to volunteer their assistance wherever possible and as directed by the Branch Committee.

Article VIII. Branch Meetings

1. (a) The Annual General Meeting of the members of the Branch shall be held in May at such place and at such time as may be determined by the Branch Committee.
(b) All members shall be given at least fourteen (14) days written notice of a General Meeting. Every notice shall contain a statement of the business to be discussed at the meeting.
(c) Members under the age of 18 years may attend and, with the permission of the Chairman, speak at a General Meeting but may not vote.
2. The order of business at an Annual General Meeting shall, as nearly as may be, be the following:
 - (a) Minutes of the last Annual General Meeting and of Special General Meetings, if any, which may have been held in the course of the year;
 - (b) Honorary Secretary's Report on the activities of the Branch during the preceding year;
 - (c) Honorary Treasurer's Report and Accounts;
 - (d) Election of officers;
 - (e) Motions;
 - (f) Any other competent business.
3. A Special General Meeting may be called at any time by the Chairman upon approval of the Branch Committee or shall be called on a petition signed by not less than one-tenth (1/10) of the members of the Branch entitled to vote when such membership does not exceed 500. When the voting membership of the Branch exceeds 500 a minimum of 50 or one-sixteenth (1/16), whichever is the greater, of the members entitled to vote must sign the petition calling a Special General Meeting.
4. One-quarter of the members entitled to vote, or twenty-five (25) members of the Branch entitled to vote, whichever shall be lesser, shall constitute a quorum.
5. The Branch in General meeting may enact such rules (hereinafter referred to as the Rules) as it may determine for the proper working of the Branch, provided that such rules are consistent with the Constitution and Rules of the Society, and Bylaws of the Branch.
6. At a General Meeting, voting shall be limited to Branch members of at least two (2) months standing.
7. There shall be no proxy voting.

Article IX. Branch Committee

1. The Branch shall be administered by a Committee of Management herein called "the Branch Committee" composed of the officers of the Branch, as detailed in Article VI, and the immediate past chairman for one year after his/her term of office.
2. The Branch Committee shall have the power to fill a vacancy among the members of the Branch Committee by appointment. Any member so appointed will serve only until the next following Annual General Meeting when he/she may stand for election. On completion of his/her year of office the member shall be eligible for re-election to the Branch Committee.
3. All members of the Branch Committee must be members of the Branch of at least three (3) months standing, and be at least 18 years old.
4. A meeting of the Branch Committee may be called at any time by the Chairman or by a majority of the Branch Committee. At least one week's notice of such a meeting shall be given to the members of the Branch. Meetings of the Branch Committee shall normally be open to all Branch members. Executive Sessions may be held when it is deemed necessary.

5. A quorum of the Branch Committee shall be five (5) members or a majority of the Committee, whichever is greater. The immediate past chairman shall not be counted for the quorum.
6. The Branch Committee shall meet at least once per quarter.
7. The Branch Committee shall have the power to manage the affairs and plan the activities of the Branch. It shall have the power to adopt or amend rules consistent with the Constitution and Rules of the Society and the Bylaws of the Branch.
8. The Branch Committee shall have the power to appoint special Committees and their Chairmen either from their own members or from the members of the Branch, and to delegate to such Special Committees certain powers as are needed. The Branch Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall be ex-officio members of all such Special Committees.
9. The Branch Committee shall have the power to authorize the expenditure of Branch funds consistent with the objectives of the Society and the needs of the Branch.

Article X. Finance

1. All monies raised by, or on behalf of, the Branch shall be applied to further the objectives of the Branch and for no other purpose; provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the payment of good faith of reasonable and proper fees to professional and technical advisers; or the repayment to members of the Branch of reasonable out of pocket expenses.

Article XI. Branch Equipment

1. Branch equipment includes all recorded media, play back equipment, etc., purchased by or donated to the Branch. Such equipment is to be used solely for Branch activities except with the approval of the Branch Committee.

Article XII. Parliamentary Authority

1. In matters of parliamentary law and procedure not covered elsewhere, the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall govern.

Article XIII. Amendment of the Bylaws

1. The Bylaws of the Branch shall only be altered by a resolution passed by the Branch in General Meeting, and only after receiving the vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the votes cast at the meeting.
2. Proposed amendments to these Bylaws may be initiated by the majority vote of the Branch Committee or by a petition signed by one-third (1/3) of the members of the Branch.
3. No amendment of these Bylaws shall be effected that conflicts with the Constitution and Rules of the Society.
4. Notice of motion to amend these Bylaws shall be given to the members at least fourteen (14) days before the General Meeting at which it is proposed to amend the Bylaws.
5. Any amendment to Article I, III, XIV, or XV of these Bylaws shall require the approval of the Society before becoming operative. Any amendment to sections other than Article I, III, XIV, or XV shall require notice to the Society for informational purposes only.

Article XIV. Disbandment

1. If the Branch in General Meeting shall decide by a two-thirds (2/3) vote to disband, notice of intention to disband the Branch shall be given to the Secretary of the Society at least two months before the date proposed for such disbandment.
2. The balance of the funds, after all liabilities have been met, and all property belonging to the Branch shall be transferred to a recognized charitable body or bodies having objectives similar to those of the Branch (excluding geographic limitations) as the members in General Meeting, whom failing, the Branch Committee, shall decide.

Article XV. Representation in the Society

1. The Branch, in General Meeting may appoint one of its members or other member of the Society, who, in either event, shall have attained the age of 18, to represent the Branch on the Executive Council of the Society. Notification of such appointment shall be in the hands of the Secretary of the Society at least eight weeks in advance of the first Executive Council meeting to be attended by the representative. In the event of the nominated representative being unable to attend any meeting or the Executive Council of the Society, an accredited substitute, who shall also have attained the age of 18, shall be allowed.
2. The Branch, in General Meeting, may nominate one of its members, who shall have attained the age of 18, for election as one of the six (6) Members of the Executive Council of the Society who are elected annually by the Society in General Meeting. Any such nomination shall comply with the requirements for nomination contained in the Constitution of the Society and shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Society at least eight (8) weeks in advance of the Society's General Meeting.
3. Subject to any restrictions on numbers and any procedures contained in the Society's constitution, the Branch in General Meeting, (which failing, the Branch Committee), may appoint a delegate or delegates; all of whom shall have attained the age of 18 years, to attend a General Meeting of the Society and represent the Branch at such meeting. In the event of an appointed delegate being unable to attend such meeting, an accredited substitute, who shall also have attained the age of 18, shall be allowed.

Article XVI. General

1. The Branch shall be governed in accordance with these Bylaws and with Rules made by the Branch in General Meeting.
2. The Branch shall abide by the Bylaws and Standing Rules of the International Dance Association of San Diego County as long as it holds membership in that Association, and provided that such Bylaws and Standing Rules are not inconsistent with these Bylaws and/or the Constitution and Rules of the Society.
